Jon Rahm

TV Quick Quotes

Q. You said the emotion when you won in Hong Kong was relief. What's the emotion now?

JON RAHM: I don't quite know. I think a little bit of it is disbelief. I've performed poorly down the stretch on this course having a chance to win before, so it's almost like I don't let myself believe it. If you would have told me last week on Thursday afternoon that I'd be winning by a six-shot margin this week, I would not have believed you because of how bad I played. Hell of a an effort, and just what a Sunday.

Q. Somebody in the crowd today told me, Jon Rahm plays wake a warrior. How much fight is involved to be successful at this level?

JON RAHM: You need a lot of fight because even today on the scorecard it might look smooth, but the three-putt on 7, had to make a nice four-footer on 8, the par on 9, the par on 10, that stretch right there could have been very complicated.

It's true from then on I played very well and never really stressed, but the that was the key moment of the round. That putt on the 10th hole was massive. It's just a moment that the scorecard doesn't show. That six-shot lead could have been three fast and maybe one or two coming down the stretch.

Q. 31 individual LIV events in your career, you've finished outside the top 10 once, that was 11th. You've been in the top 5 all season long, four wins now. What's the difference now when you get it across the line and when you don't?

JON RAHM: I don't know. I think so far this week it was putting. I made a lot of those putts inside 10 feet. Overall I did everything well this week. I never really put myself too far out of position, and I was able to take my medicine or somehow pull out a shot to put myself in position. So far this weekend I would say it was short game. There was many up-and-downs I didn't get down this week. If I had to give it to something, it was that, the touch around the greens and those par putts.

Q. Dominant win by your team, as well. What does that say about the chemistry of your team?

JON RAHM: Yeah, and two of them didn't really have the best day, right? Tyrrell and Tom didn't have their best day. I think Caleb had a better one today.

It says a lot when we can get a win, when I can say that three of the guys didn't really play at the level they can play. I'm fortunate to have these teammates. They're unbelievable. Hopefully only better to come.
