Quick Quotes

Q. How would you sum up the week?

BEN CAMPBELL: It was nice to stick in there today. I haven't probably felt like I had my best out there, but nice to stay patient and hole a couple putts coming in, which was good.

Q. It seemed like everybody was kind of playing for second at some point out there.

BEN CAMPBELL: Yeah, it was amazing to see him. Man, that was some impressive golf. Yeah, I saw that and I knew with four or five holes to go if I could try and pick up a couple and come in and birdie 18 and that. But yeah, it was a good solid week and plenty to build on, which is nice.

Q. How big is this in the big picture of things, obviously getting a lot of points and trying to finish in the top 24 which you said was your goal at the start of the year?

BEN CAMPBELL: Yeah, it was big. Obviously I was very frustrated last week in Hong Kong to not play that great. So worked hard early on this week and made a few little changes, and yeah, it was good. Sort of had the team here and that, so it was nice to see the hard work paying off.

Q. Any particular change --

BEN CAMPBELL: Just a few little swing things. I hadn't been swinging it overly great at the start of the year and just a couple little bad habits that came in after the Christmas break. Yeah, it was nice to get on top of those, and yeah, feel like a couple weeks off now and sort of keep cementing those in, I feel like I should be in a good spot coming into Miami.

Q. Looking toward the rest of the season, what are some of the courses that you're looking forward to that you expect to play well? Korea maybe?

BEN CAMPBELL: Yeah, Korea maybe, Valderrama. Sort of a few people said Mexico should sort of suit my game.

I think for me, if I can sort of drive it well, even around Miami, it's a very long golf course and things like that, but if I can keep the ball in play a lot, I think -- it felt a lot closer this week, which was nice. I think there's a few of those courses, maybe a few of the shorter ones that I can try and take advantage of a little bit more and get the putter running hot.

Q. This is 7,400 yards out here; you proved that you can play on any kind of course.

BEN CAMPBELL: Yeah, definitely. I've always played well around here in Singapore. It's nice to come into some of these courses knowing that I've played well here when I've needed to before. I think plenty of positives to take, and just keep building on it.
