HONG KONG

Q. Tyrrell, bogey-free round of 67 on a cold day with some swirling winds. How would you describe your round? Are you happy with it?

TYRRELL HATTON: I wouldn't say I'm particularly happy with it, if I'm honest. Yeah, it was tough. The wind was swirling around, so it seemed difficult to hit the right shot. I felt like I was in between clubs all day. But yeah, bogey-free is not too bad around here, and hopefully we can get some nicer numbers over the weekend.

Q. You hit a lot of good putts today, but they just seemed to be burning the edges. Are these greens very hard to read?

TYRRELL HATTON: Well, yeah, they're tricky to read, but I felt like I was putting from 30 feet all day, which isn't much fun. You're not going to hole too many from that distance. But it is what it is.

I do feel like I've been rolling it nice this week, even in practice. My start lines have been good. As I said, I just need to have some nicer numbers over the weekend, and yeah, hopefully that means I can hit it closer and give myself some better opportunities.

Q. I'm sure you enjoy playing with your teammates, but is it a different dynamic than playing with other players in this league?

TYRRELL HATTON: I mean, I guess you're a little bit more comfortable with each other, but I think ultimately in the tournament days it doesn't make a huge amount of difference who you play with.
