Quick Quotes

Q. You gave it quite a run.

DEAN BURMESTER: I tried. That was a good round of golf. Really solid. I didn't leave much out there. A couple putts I left in the throat that maybe could have gone in. Sergio played a hell of a weekend there. I'm just glad I was up there. It was good to get those feelings again. I just kind of had that feeling all week that I was going to be close.

Q. How about from a team standpoint; you guys made such a rally and obviously it came down to a late birdie from those guys to make the difference?

DEAN BURMESTER: That to me, when I was on my last hole, I honestly didn't think Phil was going to birdie 18, so I was like, okay, I hit it to about seven feet, and I was like, okay, this is big for the team, I need to make 2 here for the team to give us a chance, and I made 2. For me, that was the biggest thing.

Then I looked back, and as I got in the clubhouse I saw the young kid Luis make a birdie, and that's special. For a kid like that, that's awesome. So kudos to him.

I'm glad all four of us could band together and get back to where we should be, and I think Branden finished in the points, so that was special.
