Quick Quotes

Q. You've had a great start to the season. How do you feel about coming out really strong, playing hot? What did you do in the off-season that you think contributed to your strong start?

MATT WOLFF: I put in a lot of work. Golf is one of those funny games. I feel like when your swing feels good, it's easy, and then when it doesn't it's impossible. Really more than anything, just feel like it's a little timed up right now. But yeah, it's been fun. I don't want to get too far ahead of myself, but it feels a lot better than it did last year.

Q. You're known for your long game, and this is a short course. Did you have to prepare specifically at all or switch anything up, and if so, how?

MATT WOLFF: Not really. I think it's a good golf course. To be honest, if you drive it good, you can take advantage of even some shorter holes if you're aggressive. Obviously if you get a little off with the driver you can make bogey pretty quickly, but I've been driving it good. I think just being in the fairway and having wedges in, it's easier to play like that around here. Really, like I said, it's just -- I hit it good the first two days, so hopefully it continues.
