Q. It is the first ever 59 in the history of golf, and I hate to say it, with a double bogey. Talk to me about that round.

SEBASTIAN MUÑOZ: Yeah, amazing round. I started par-par-birdie, feeling normal. I just tried to go low, then a double hits me. I just kind of stayed positive, made a couple birdies and kind of made a run and we made eight straight, and when I look, I got cameras on top of me, and I kind of make them mad when it's possible. You've just got to birdie out. I made a great putt on 17 and 18 to keep it going and a really good wedge shot here on 1 to finish it up.

Q. You caddie said you've shot 60 twice; you were standing on the tee at 1 and he said, We've got to hit the fairway. How important was that to get the 59 done?

SEBASTIAN MUÑOZ: Huge. I'm always a believer in hitting driver instead of 3-wood, and today he was like, We need to hit driver. It was what it needed to be to get a comfortable shot from the fairway, and we just committed to it, and it paid off.

Q. I know it was a three-footer, but what were the emotions going through that? Was it just process, process?

SEBASTIAN MUÑOZ: The break was a little tricky so I just didn't want to mess it up. I had missed some short ones before, so I just really tried to focus, and at the moment just hit it as smooth as I could, and it went in, so it was great.
