Q. Joaco, you didn't have your best stuff today but grinded out a 66 after a great birdie. Is that a score you would have accepted at the start of the day?

JOAQUÍN NIEMANN: Yes and no. Yeah, it was a grind. I felt like I started a little bit -- I actually started playing well. I hit really poor chip shots around the green, and that kind of slowed me down. Got back into a nice eagle, and yeah, it was a grind on the back nine.

It's nice to make a birdie on the last one.

Q. You're one shot ahead of Jon Rahm, who shot a 64. The way the draw works, you could be paired with him tomorrow. Do you want to be paired with Jon Rahm tomorrow?

JOAQUÍN NIEMANN: Whatever comes, it comes. But I'm looking forward to tomorrow. I think it's been great. It would be a good day for us. Carlos played well today as well. Looking forward to tomorrow, having our last chance to win a golf tournament for the team.
