Q. You've had some close calls; putter wasn't your friend. After your finish yesterday, what were you thinking about coming into today?

SEBASTIAN MUÑOZ: Man, I got a lot of support, honestly. I kind of beat myself up a little bit after that tee shot yesterday and I was kind of mad at myself, but there was a lot of support around me.

My caddie made sure to talk to me last night and remind me that we're in a great position, we're playing great, and we can bet on ourselves against anyone really. That's what we came today, trying to take care of business.

Of course Jon shot 10-under, so you go from one legend to another one. It's pretty cool. Pretty cool. Awesome experience, and making birdie two times in a row here, it's undescrivable.

Q. To me you showed amazing courage to know that you were down, you waited all day for the guys in front of you, but an unbelievable up-and-down on 17, birdie this hole twice, beat Jon Rahm, you have to be over the moon.

SEBASTIAN MUÑOZ: I mean, yeah. There's no words to describe it right now. I'm proud of myself. It's been a long time coming, six years since my last win, and it's awesome right now being able to take it in with my daughter, my family, everyone here, it's great.
