Q. I feel like your game has been trending. How would you say it is?

THOMAS PIETERS: Yeah, it's good at the moment. I'm enjoying it out here, and I look forward to the weekend because I'm playing well.

Q. You have had this battle between each other since you were young men. How much did that push you both along today?

THOMAS DETRY: Yeah, to be honest, I had a lot of fun today. I'm really happy I got to play with him. It's been a while. Have we played together a couple of times this year? No, it was really fun. I felt like we fed from each other all day long. We had a good match going and I beat him by one, so that makes me happy.

Q. Anything you'd like to say to that?

THOMAS PIETERS: No, I know it makes him happy so I'm happy for him.

Q. The 4Aces are on fire at the moment. You're in the mix again. What is it that you think separates your team from the rest?

THOMAS PIETERS: I think seeing us in last place yesterday at some point, I think that really pissed us off, and we got going then.

THOMAS DETRY: We just believe in each other, and we trust in each other's game golf as well. I know AK struggled a little bit yesterday. We had his back. I don't know what he shot today, but it looks like he fought back today, and he fought back for the team, not only for himself. That's what matters in team golf, and that's what it's all about. Obviously DJ is playing great golf as well so we took care of business, and yeah, we played for something bigger than ourselves. We played for the team,
