been playing well all week, playing foursomes with him. I seen walking off one of the holes his leaderboard, and I knew he was playing well and I was playing well.

The golf course was there to sort of get, and everyone played really nice, which was cool.

Q. Congratulations, guys, on being the 2025 team champions. Tyrrell, I'm going to start with you. You have been in Ryder Cups. How much of that experience did you draw on during the playoff?

TYRRELL HATTON: Yeah, I've got plenty of experience, but you still get nervous in those situations. I don't think nerves are a bad thing. So it's not something to shy away from. If anything, I guess it helps you focus more, and in the right moment, you can hit great shots. Just very happy I was able to do that.

Q. Before we came on air here, you described that wedge shot. Can you tell the rest of us?

TYRRELL HATTON: No, that's a secret between us now.

Q. Caleb, congratulations. Now, you are Mr. Sunday. You did what you did on every single Sunday. What about the pressure makes you rise to the occasion?

CALEB SURRATT: I don't know. I work hard. I do all the right things. I don't know, I think towards the end of the week, you just feel a sense of urgency to go out and take it. Those were kind of my words today, and I was definitely proud of this Sunday.

Q. Tom, you and Caleb both were off to a hot start. Your captain Jon as well as Tyrrell took a little while to get going. When you looked up at that leaderboard and saw you guys were carrying the team, what was going through your mind at that time?

TOM MCKIBBIN: I'm not sure actually because the leaderboards I'd seen, I just seen the total score. So I didn't know who was on what score, but I knew Caleb had
