Q. I know it's been quite a ride. So many people doubted your comeback, and you got relegated, but you never doubted yourself once in this process. How much of this is proving to everybody that they're wrong, and how much of this is redemption for you?

ANTHONY KIM: Yeah, it feels great. I'm not here to prove everybody wrong. I'm here to prove myself right. I've worked so hard, and this little girl right here is one of the reasons why. Obviously my wife has been so supportive. I've had so much support behind me all year, the last two years since I've been back. I'm so grateful that I'm back on the stage.

Q. Speaking of coming back, I know you got relegated last season, but how much is this and what happened this weekend, the way you performed, the way you showed up, how much confidence is this going to give you heading into the 2026 season?

ANTHONY KIM: Yeah, a lot of confidence because I definitely didn't have it today. I didn't feel great with my swing. I putted okay but didn't make a ton. I feel like my game is trending in the right direction, that my bad rounds, I can still hang in there and be around par.

This is just the first step, but I'm glad I earned my spot so everybody could quit talking shit, and I'll be back soon and I'll be winning golf tournaments soon.
