Q. All right, here with Weiwei after the first round of the Ford Championship presented by Wild Horse Pass. 8-under 64, bogey-free. Talk about how you have your day today. Those don't come around too often?

WEIWEI ZHANG: Yeah, I really like the course and I prefer these tournament very long time. I arrive here earlier, so I think this course -- I really like this course and my swing is great.

Q. You played really well a little Blue Bay, runner-up finish. Can you talk about where your game is overall?

WEIWEI ZHANG: I think my putting had a lot improve, my putting, so that's why I can shoot the low score right now.

Q. And you mentioned your putting but your ball striking was really good today.

WEIWEI ZHANG: Yeah.

Q. Every fairway and only missed two greens. Have you been working on anything with that?

WEIWEI ZHANG: Yeah, I work with my swing also and I really want to thank my coach. I work on my swing very hard this week, and, yeah, today my ball striking is perfect. Yeah.

Q. What have you been working on?

WEIWEI ZHANG: I'm working on my -- secrets. Yeah, that's secrets.

I don't know, actually I work my three quarter shots and work -- I had a lot of practice with my wedge shot. So that's why this week or today my iron is great and also my driver is great.
