Quick Quotes

Q. First question: What was going really well for you out there in the round today? Couple birdies; put yourself near the top. What was the key?

JASMINE SUWANNAPURA: I would say that my putting. I've been working a lot with my putting the last two, three weeks. You know, I was kind of happy to see them drop today, definitely.

Q. How are the greens playing today? I heard they were a little easy to read. Is that your opinion, or you were jurist reading them really well?

JASMINE SUWANNAPURA: I read them quite good anyway, but, I mean, the green is so smooth and rolls so good this week. I think that's why people think that it's easier to putt.

Today it was not too easy because it's kind of windy. We got a little gusty on couple holes, especially on 17. I got a gusty wind and took left in the bunker.

But other than that, I wouldn't change anything today.

Q. How important is precision out here, having to hit those greens and those fairways on this course?

JASMINE SUWANNAPURA: I think it's pretty important like to keep yourself opportunity for attack the pin. And especially this week the green is a little bit on the softer side, and I feel like a lot of the people want to attack the pin more.

Again, you can gain or lose because a lot of pin they been tucking on the side, on the edge, so you really have to wait it out if you want to go for it or you play a little safe.
