Quick Quotes

Q. Here with Megan Khang. 3-under today. Just going to be a handful back heading into tomorrow. What's the mindset?

MEGAN KHANG: I guess kind of the same as the past couple days. Today again hit some pretty good shots out there. Wasn't able to get the putter hot, but, I mean, thankfully I hit some really good shots where it was almost a tap-in for birdies.

But able to make those and kind of try to keep some momentum going. But definitely looking at the leaderboard and I know I'll be chasing for sure out there.

Q. I mean, when you're chasing like that it kind of frees you up to do some attacking with nothing really to lose. Is that how you typically play on Sunday?

MEGAN KHANG: Yes and no. The younger Megan would be like 100% I'm going for everything. Right now I know the official is going to put some dicey pins out there, and just going to have to take my medicine on maybe taking a step back of being aggressive on some of them.

Overall, just kind of being aggressive when I can and trying to make the best of it when I need to.

Q. Finally, kind of in a similar situation to Toledo, and put together a low number on Sunday. What do you think you need to do tomorrow to capture that first win?

MEGAN KHANG: Definitely stay within myself, not get ahead of myself. Toledo just kind of a free flowing Sunday. I think I was like four back, four or five back.

You know, which is kind of -- Jack and I went out there and we were like, Hey, we can post a number maybe and see what happens. But, I mean, again, I can't control what the leaders will do. Just going to try and go out there and play my own game.
