Q. All right, here with Chanettee Wannasaen after her second round at the Portland Classic. What did you do really well today?

CHANETTEE WANNASAEN: Today is because I can made a birdie today. I think that my game today is very good, because like, you know, like I miss cut like about like seven times in LPGA, but first time I can improve my game in tournament.

Q. Lots of birdies for you today. Were you making a lot of putts? Did you have really good approach shots? How were you making birdies?

CHANETTEE WANNASAEN: I think I can made a birdie from the approach shot, because like approach shot -- birdie for approach shot about four or five birdie, four putt about three or two birdies.

Q. Okay. Awesome. Perfect. Having to Monday qualify and then doing so well at a different course, how challenging has that been?

CHANETTEE WANNASAEN: I think Monday qualify is only one to play for coming to this tournament, but I can do the best from the Mondays qualify.

And challenge, you know, it's because it's tournament, it's LPGA tournament, but was on the Monday it's Monday qualify. I don't know how to say, but...

Q. Yeah. So you're saying is it harder to Monday qualifier or easier to Monday qualify?

CHANETTEE WANNASAEN: It's harder but Monday is not easier because we play just one day.

Q. Okay. Makes sense. Lastly, how do you like this course? How does this course suit your game?

CHANETTEE WANNASAEN: Probably because I can made a lot of birdie. And it's pretty. I love Portland so much.
