Quick Quotes

Q. All right, joining us after the final round of The Standard Portland Classic is Anne Chen. Anne, you made a hole-in-one on No. 8 today. Can you just talk us through the hole?

ANNE CHEN: Well, you know, it was a good pin. It's one of the shorter par-3s as well, so when you can kind of take advantage of it, be a little careful because there is a lot of water on the right-hand side.

But I had like a small 9-iron and it was 134, so I was like, anywhere near the hole could be good, give myself a chance for birdie. Then it jumped into the hole and I was like Oh, okay.

So it was a good hole, yeah.

Q. Is this your first hole-in-one?

ANNE CHEN: No, second, but first professional hole-in-one, yeah.

Q. And then CME donates $10,000 I believe for every hole-in-one made on Tour.

ANNE CHEN: Awesome.

Q. How does it feel to contribute to that?

ANNE CHEN: That's awesome. Such a great cause. I'm so glad I can contribute. Hopefully I have some more.

Q. Then you also matched the low round of the week during your second round. How is your game feeling out here?

ANNE CHEN: You know, it was feeling good because I was on Epson for some of this year because I had dual status and I just really wanted to see how my game was coming from Epson to LPGA. There is a lot of growth this year, so I'm feeling pretty happy about it, yeah.
