Q. Started the day, you managed to step your lead up. How would you describe your overall mindset today?

JEENO THITIKUL: I think it's been pretty good I would say. I mean, like just trying to focus on myself and then trying to make birdies and birdies and birdies, because I know it's a bunch of player who be able to make a lot of birdies.

Q. You have so much to play for here tomorrow. How do you handle the pressure with so much on the line?

JEENO THITIKUL: Well, I think every day we face different situations and I think this is another situations that it can help me grow in my golf career.

So I'm happy to be able to face it because it's mean a good sign. So we'll see.
