Quick Quotes

Q. Another solid day out here in Singapore, just seems to be getting better and better for you. Take me through day three?

HANNAH GREEN: Yeah, I probably didn't hit the ball as well as yesterday but I played I guess pretty well and made sure I missed it in the right places. Had a couple bogeys out there today which were not really that soft. They were probably good bogeys, so hopefully tomorrow I can continue to keep making birdies like I have been. But yeah, managed this heat.

Q. Birdies and maybe another eagle. Take me through 10?

HANNAH GREEN: Yeah, I guess it's been quite a long time since I've holed out from the fairway from quite some distance. I hit my tee shot into the right rough. Had an 8-iron in and it hit the pin. Bounced, hit the pin and went in. That was a nice bonus. I do think if it didn't hit the pin, it was going to race a little by it, probably still on the green. Yeah, that was a lot of fun and gave me some good momentum to make a couple par saves on the next two holes.

Q. What was the mindset going into today? With no cut every day is like a new moving day?

HANNAH GREEN: It is a different feeling when you just get to play the weekend in general, but I tried to stay aggressive out there. Obviously Inbee is a great player and won so many tournaments, so it's going to be hard to keep chasing her but I'm excited for tomorrow.
