Quick Quotes

Q. Your first round, a solid round out there today. There's not a lot of low scores out there. Can you talk about your round in general?

IN GEE CHUN: It was quite windy out there. But then it was hot but not too hot, the course. So I tried to more enjoy for everything.

I had good winter training before I came here. The score is not too low today but still just at the end of the day, still in the process. So I'm looking forward for the next three days.

Q. And how would you compare the course that you saw today compared to the last few years that you played here?

IN GEE CHUN: With the wind, I felt was longer today, and even when I talk with other playing partner, yeah, everyone agreed. But green was quite firm, few holes. So just give and take. But very competitive.

Q. You finished second here a couple years ago. What is it about the place that brings out the best in your game?

IN GEE CHUN: I think, yeah, I finished second before in this event. I feel more comfortable and confident on the course because I had a good memory from Singapore.

And also, now I just -- always staying present is really important for all the golfers. I'm really trying to stay present, and if I can do better than finish second, I'll be really happy.

But the key is, I think, the staying present and the victory will come.

Q. There's a lot of fans out here supporting you. What's it like to have them here in Singapore watching you?

IN GEE CHUN: It feels really special and I really appreciate them because even they came from all the other countries, Korea and other countries, too. So when I'm playing with the fans out there, it feels more fun, and when I'm playing not good, still, I have like someone who support me the last couple long years.

I don't know how much longer I will play on the Tour, but I have a good time with them, and if I can make a victory, then good. I am always thankful for them to come out and watch my game.
