Quick Quotes

Q. A bogey-free final round. How good does it feel to end a major championship on that note?

IN GEE CHUN: I starting with the two birdies at the beginning, so I thought I had a really good chance to get up into the Top 3. Then I really wanted to made it.

After two holes I missed a couple birdie chance so I did a little disappointed, but it was still good when I made a bogey-free round, and I'm so glad I made it.

Last three holes I really want to make more than 3-under par, so -- then I did, so I'm really happy.

Q. So you set some small goals while you were out there and you accomplished them all.

IN GEE CHUN: Yeah.

Q. How good does a Top 10 in a major championship feel?

IN GEE CHUN: Always my goal is make the Top 10 all of the -- from all the tournaments. Even especially during the major when I make the Top 10 it make me feel a little bit happier, more happy.

So it was good. Now I got more confidence going to the next week and next major. Yeah, I can't wait.

Q. I was going to say, how much momentum do you feel that you have for the inaugural ISPS Handa World Invitational?

IN GEE CHUN: I think all my game is getting better and it's still in the process, but I think everything is going on the right way.

So just trust myself and just keep going. Yeah.

Q. Have you ever been to Northern Ireland?

IN GEE CHUN: Nope. I'm going this year. I really want to go there because my previous caddie, he born in there so he taught me a lot of good things about Northern Ireland.

So I'm exciting.

Q. Who was your previous caddie?

IN GEE CHUN: David Johnson.

Q. Okay. How long did he caddie for you?

IN GEE CHUN: Long time. Because I won the Evian Championship with him then couple events. Yeah.

Q. Do you remember any advice that he gave you for maybe some links-style golf?

IN GEE CHUN: Unfortunately he didn't give me any advice for the golf. He always talk about more like weather and then house and then good people and good food. Yeah.

Q. So what do you expect weather-wise next week?

IN GEE CHUN: Honestly, I don't like cold weather but here was like the cold weather, but hopefully it's not too cold and not too windy. Whatever. I can't control the weather so I just want to enjoy next week.
