Quick Quotes

Q. All right, here with Perrine Delacour. I know probably not as low as you wanted to go on moving day, but still ground out an under par round. Take me through that 18 holes.

PERRINE DELACOUR: Yeah, I was having a little bit pressure first time being like first French player. So always you want to do good but it's always like pressure and everything.

I'm pretty happy the way I played all day. I mean, I still grinded, even 1-under today, so it's pretty good.

Q. I can imagine feeling it playing in front of a hometown crowd, but having the support of the fans, what has that meant to you this week?

PERRINE DELACOUR: Yeah, it's really good. It means a lot. I mean, having the crowd behind you, it's really good. I really like it.

I mean, I still have 18 holes to play, so I'm just going to try my best and see where it's going.

Q. What was the key for you to grind that out today? What were some of your personal highlights?

PERRINE DELACOUR: I mean, I make some really good save where I needed to I feel like. I mean, I made a really good up and down on 13 for par, which, I mean, it was tough chip, so really happy about that.

And I grinded, like make a really good birdie on 15.

Almost made birdie on 16.

Then missed 18 birdie.

But I am really happy the way I played all day and the way I finished.

Q. Obviously going to have a ton of ground to make up tomorrow, but heading into Sunday, in front of a French crowd, kind of in the mix, what are you going to do? Go for broke? Just try to play conservatively?

PERRINE DELACOUR: I'm just going to try my best golf. I mean, Brooke, I think she's top of the lead by far, so -- but I will just try my best and see where it's going at the end of the week.
