Quick Quotes

Q. What things went well today and what things were maybe harder for you?

ANDREA LEE: Honestly, not too satisfied with my round today. Only came out 1-under par. I'm really proud of myself for staying patient out there.

I think I was 1-over through 13 or 14 holes, so just really grinded. I made a lot of good par saves, so in that area was content. Hopefully more birdie putts will drop tomorrow.

Q. (Regarding the putter.)

ANDREA LEE: A little bit, yeah. I was kind of making up and downs from some tough places and made like a 25-footer for par on one hole.

Yeah, can't really complain. I fought and managed to shoot an under par round today. I'm happy with that.

Q. I can kind of make my deductions, but what are the things you want to improve tomorrow?

ANDREA LEE: Yeah, the shots weren't as great today as it was the last couple days, so I think just sharpening up the driver and long irons a little bit.

Just putting. It's always the putting. In order to play well you got to make the putts, so going to work on that.
