Quick Quotes

Q. Great finish.

ESTHER HENSELEIT: Yeah, I played really well. Sadly my putter didn't really heat up all week. Yeah, hitting the ball great. Yeah, just really good, solid, boring golf for most of it.

Q. We were talking during the week, but now we can say how good you do at the majors. (Regarding pressure.)

ESTHER HENSELEIT: I feel like my golf really suits the major golf courses. My ball striking is definitely my strength. I can hit it pretty high. Here I can stop it on the small areas that you have basically on every green. I just really enjoy playing tough golf courses. Feel like it suits me if it's not a birdie festival.

Yeah, I really like tough golf courses, so it's great to have that in majors.

Q. So the last thing is looking into what's coming now, how excited are you about the Olympics and the possibility of make the Solheim Cup?

ESTHER HENSELEIT: Yeah, it's a childhood dream of mind to be at Olympics. Definitely going to be a highlight. I hope I can really soak it all in and use it to coach me a little bit. I hope my golf will be good as well.

Yeah, we will see how it goes. Yeah, it's definitely going to be a great experience. And, yeah, I'm playing great. We'll see how the next few weeks go. Yeah, I hope I'll be at the Solheim. It's definitely on my list.
