Quick Quotes

Q. So tell me about the last hole, that finish.

PAULA RETO: Oh, my goodness. I was a little nervous. I wanted to hit a good shot and told myself just hit a smooth 6-iron. Ewe left ourself 175 and a perfect full 6-iron. I just hit it at the town and drew a little bit in, so it was perfect.

I told myself, hey, give yourself an opportunity to make this putt. If it doesn't go in, make birdie and be finished.

Q. So looking back, great week at a major, no?

PAULA RETO: Oh, yeah, definitely. This last few majors I played the last rounds really I sort of kicked myself out. I told myself today I just want to really give myself a shot to finish top 30.

So I really stayed within myself and played one hole at a time and really honed in on some putting. Putting saved me today for sure.

Q. What's coming now?

PAULA RETO: So couple events coming up. Dana and CPKC and then the Olympics. So nice, fun stretch coming up.

Q. What do you look forward to most about the Olympics?

PAULA RETO: Yeah, just seeing the other athletes. Definitely want to watch some games. I think we're playing a really nice course as well. But just being in the environment and being able to represent your country, I think that's just a thrill in it all.
