Quick Quotes

Q. Okay, cool. Here with Jennifer Kupcho after her second round at the Amundi Evian Championship. How would you just compare the past two days, two rounds that you've had out here?

JENNIFER KUPCHO: Honestly, like pretty similar. Maybe didn't hit the ball as well today into the greens, but really recovered well, decently. Still was making a lot of putts today.

Q. That was one thing your caddie mentioned about your putting today. What clicked today? Was it your speed? Distance? What was it for you?

JENNIFER KUPCHO: I think it's just a bit of confidence. I obviously made a lot of putts yesterday. Been making a lot of putts and putting well. I think it's just kind of rolling, seeing the lines well.

Feel like I've been here enough times that I'm starting to learn the greens a little bit, so that helps.

Q. He mentioned the greens as well. If you get into these spots, really hard to two-putt as well. Talk about that a little bit for perspective.

JENNIFER KUPCHO: Yeah, I mean, the undulations on the greens, if you hit it on one side of the hole, you're pretty screwed versus if you miss it 20 yards right on the other side. You have a much better chance, which is not really like any kind of golf course we play.

So I think it's definitely about a game of misses for sure.

Q. He was also giving you kudos on being a shot shaper and being able to really manage that well. It comes in handy a lot out here. Could you speak to that? Is that something you've always been able to do well or something you really fine tuned before events like this?

JENNIFER KUPCHO: I think just in general I'm a good ball-striker. I think that helps to start.

But I think when I was younger I played a bit of a draw and that's really all I could hit. Then switched to a cut, and that's almost all I can hit, but I can still shape it a bit draw-wise.

Having played two different ways during my life I've kind of learned how to do both.
