Quick Quotes

Q. All right, here with Yuri Yoshida after her third round at the Amundi Evian Championship. Just an awesome round today with a 63. Could you talk about how it went for you?

YURI YOSHIDA: Big, big moving day for me. I got eight birdies. I can't believe that.

Q. And can you talk about the last four holes? Was it four holes, last five holes? You made a lot of birdies coming down the stretch there. Talk about some of those holes.

YURI YOSHIDA: That's perfect. No. 18 was very difficult bunker shot. That's amazing shot I think.

Q. Yeah. And you tied one of your lowest rounds today, too. I don't know if it you knew that. Seemed like you didn't.

YURI YOSHIDA: I'm very happy and it's my best score my career on LPGA.

Q. What does it mean to go into Sunday with a chance to win a major?

YURI YOSHIDA: Yeah, I know I need more point this year in rankings, so I want to get more birdies tomorrow.

Q. What do you like about this golf course and how does it suit your game?

YURI YOSHIDA: This course similar Japanese course, so big undulations, grasses, so I like this course.

Q. So are you a good player that can play off slopes?

YURI YOSHIDA: Slopes.

Q. You like to play off slopes?

YURI YOSHIDA: Yeah, yeah, big slope. I love it.

Q. I would hope so.

YURI YOSHIDA: Yeah.

Q. I was just going to ask what was your goal going into today? What were you trying to focus on today?

YURI YOSHIDA: I focus on keep the fairway, keep the green. That's so simple, but today's golf is perfect, yeah.
