Q. Okay, here with Hinako after her second round at the here at the Amundi Evian Championship. Great round from you today. Just take us through the round. What worked well for you?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: I made some long putt and that was very lucky for me.

Q. What were you able to do well around this course?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: I'm very patient, yeah, on this course.

Q. A lot of Japanese players are playing very well on this course. What is it about this course or the style of golf that seems people are doing well?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: The course is very similar to Japanese course and very tight and narrow and you got to aim more specific place. Yeah, that's all to Japanese players.

Q. What will you take away from this round heading into the weekend?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: I still have to be patient, yeah.

Q. Can I ask you how you're handling the heat? It's quite warm.

HINAKO SHIBUNO: It's better than Japan, so.

Q. What's the weather like there?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: Japan a more humid, more wet compared to here.

Q. How does the greens, like the grass...

HINAKO SHIBUNO: The course compared to last year is a little tough condition this year, a little more dry. Bud you had rain last year. Maybe that's why. It was more wet on the fairways.
