Quick Quotes

Q. Hard work. How were you able to stay boosted today, or was it as nerve-wracking as it appeared as I was watching?

MINJEE LEE: I wasn't that nervous, but obviously I wasn't striking it as well as I wanted to. I still drove it and putted it really well, so trying to take the positives.

Q. You mentioned yesterday about it being a nice feeling when you see the fruits of your labor and the hard work paying off; is that this today?

MINJEE LEE: Yeah, definitely. I feel really, really good, and even though I didn't strike it that that well today, I'm really, really happy where.

Q. When you hit putt after putt, a lot of really good putts, not a lot seemed to be dropping today, how do you stay optimistic?

MINJEE LEE: You know, I was really concentrating on each shot one at a time, so I got on the putting green and I was like, oh, just trying to see it go in, and a lot of them lipped out.

At the end of the day I still got the job done, so I'm happy.
