Q. Pretty good reading when you look at that card, Yealimi. Turned it on on your second nine, which was the front nine. What clicked for you?

YEALIMI NOH: I just hit it really well today. 18 was the only green I missed and a lot of putts dropped in. Tempo was really good today. Just made it simple: Fairways and greens.

Q. What did you do over the offseason to prepare for this kind of quality golf we saw today?

YEALIMI NOH: Yeah, I practiced a lot. I worked out a lot in the gym getting my body ready for this season. San Francisco, Dallas, all my trainers, I got one everywhere. They're amazing and got me in really good shape.

Q. How do you prepare for this kind of grass? This is a little bit different playing on bermuda. And how comfortable are you on it?

YEALIMI NOH: I would say I'm usually not the most comfortable just not being in Florida often. I hit a lot of greens so I didn't have to chip around too much except the last hole.

Yeah, kept it simple. If I hit it good anywhere then the grass doesn't matter.
