Quick Quotes

Q. All right, joining us after the first round of the JM Eagle is Camille Boyd. You're a rookie this season. How does it feel to just be out here and to go low during your first round?

CAMILLE BOYD: Yeah, coming out here was definitely an adjustment. Playing on Epson last year, the LPGA is definitely a different environment.

But I'm happy to have - hopefully - finally settled in and just play some good golf from here.

Q. You are originally from California. How does feel to play in these tournaments out here?

CAMILLE BOYD: Feels good. Kind of feels like coming home. California -- although I moved around a lot when I was a kid California is really where I learned to play golf, so feels nice to come back for sure.

Q. Is there anyone out here supporting you this week?

CAMILLE BOYD: Yeah, my dad is here and two friends from the clothing company that I'm wearing. They were out here as well and big supporters, and it's nice to hear some claps when some putts go in.

Q. Obviously looking ahead to the rest of the season, are there any goals you set for yourself or anything you're thinking about as we get into the season?

CAMILLE BOYD: Not really. I think right now where I'm at I just want to take it day by day and see where things go. I think that's where I play the best golf and where I'm the happiest.

So I'm just going to keep moving along like that day by day.

Q. Welcome to the LPGA from the Epson. It's so nice to have you here. Do you have any aches and pains from playing golf and if yes, which body parts?

CAMILLE BOYD: I feel like my traps get really sore. I hold a lot of tension in there and I'm like basically stressed for five hours of the day, so, yeah.

Q. I see a lot of physios on the driving range today. Do you also have someone that helps out with that, someone specific?

CAMILLE BOYD: I do. I have a trainer and we have a good warm up that we -- I have on my phone and I just do. He's not here today but he was for the last event.

Q. So it's like a fitness person or a physical therapist?

CAMILLE BOYD: Not a physical therapist, a trainer. So to answer your question about physical therapist, I don't have one. I just use the staff from LPGA and they've been great.

But trainer, we have a program that we're on.

Q. Wonderful. Good luck this week.

CAMILLE BOYD: Thank you.
