Quick Quotes

Q. Okay, here with Ina Yoon after the first round of the Buick LPGA Shanghai. Can you talk a little bit about today's round and what went well?

INA YOON: I really enjoyed it today because my iron shot and wedge shot was amazing today. Like I got three tap-in birdie for today and one tap-in eagle I got.

So the shot was pretty good today. That's why I hit it low.

Q. Is that something you worked on recently?

INA YOON: I more focus on rhythm on my swing, so I think that work today. Yeah, that one and I start with Kevin last week so we have good conversation each other and I think that helpful on the course.

Q. Yeah. And you said you worked on your swing a little bit. What is it in your swing that you worked on?

INA YOON: Try to not open my chest when I impact. Try to make club head not to -- not out to in. Yeah, that's why I said rhythm.

Q. We're going to be in Korea next week for the BMW. How excited are you to be playing in Korea?

INA YOON: I've been playing in Korea a lots of time, as you know I play KLPGA Tour last year, so I really excited to play first time in LPGA play in Korea. So, yeah, I can't wait.
