Quick Quotes

Q. Okay, here with Lindy Duncan after the second round of the Buick LPGA Shanghai. Just talk about today's round for you.

LINDY DUNCAN: Yeah, it was a great round. Played really solid on the front nine and the back nine was kind of up and down. Made a bogey, made a birdie, bogeying, birdie, bogey, birdie, so the scorecard was a bit up and down.

Yeah, I just kind of kept going. It was really hot, so pretty tired right now.

Q. You put together two great rounds over the past couple days. What is working well with your game?

LINDY DUNCAN: Yeah, I was talking to my coach, Sean about my swing because I was feeling like I was missing some shots right and left, so we kind of went back to like our very first lesson of some thoughts.

I started to feel pretty good on Wednesday in the pro-am, so, yeah, I was pretty excited to play.

Q. Do you have those notes or anything like that back from that first lesson that you referred back to?

LINDY DUNCAN: Yeah. I keep a lot of notes.

Q. I did the same thing.

LINDY DUNCAN: Yeah.

Q. When you think about this course and what makes someone play so well here, what do you think it is?

LINDY DUNCAN: I think hitting fairways is really important. I missed a couple today so it was really challenging to figure out how the ball is going to come out of the rough.

So when I'm feeling good with my driver I give myself some pretty good chances, some shorter clubs, some wedges; par-5s are kind of reachable.

So there are a lot of opportunities I think if you can keep it in the fairway.

Q. You've done a couple fun things outside of the golf course. How do you do that to balance out the travel weeks?

LINDY DUNCAN: Yeah, I do not like sitting in my hotel room. I want to get out and explore and Shanghai is so beautiful. I've been The Bund once before and really wanted to go. Tuesday was the best day schedule-wise, and it was amazing and it was really busy and crowded because of the holiday, so it was cool to see it with so many people.
