Q. All right, here with Rio after her second round. Great score today. Talk about what really helped your game today, stood out in your game.

RIO TAKEDA: I think when I had a birdie chances and I could make the really good putting so I think my putting worked out really well today.

Q. Talk through your eagle on 13.

RIO TAKEDA: So I took the driver shot and it went to the right on the rough and I use a spin and dropped ten meters and then I make eagle.

Q. And what do you really like about this golf course? How do you think it suits your game?

RIO TAKEDA: There are wide targets for the tee shots so I think I can drive really freely. That's key.

Q. I was just going to ask, toward the end of the 2024 year. How would you describe your season that you've had so far?

RIO TAKEDA: I think I would say this season has been really impressive for me and I could have won a couple tournaments, but I still need to keep going and I try to get better.

Q. What have you enjoyed most about this season with all your wins?

RIO TAKEDA: I could win the major tournament which led to myself having confidence.
