Quick Quotes

Q. How many holes did you play today? Too many?

SEI YOUNG KIM: 34.

Q. 34 holes?

SEI YOUNG KIM: Yeah, all day.

Q. When was the last time you played 34 holes in one day?

SEI YOUNG KIM: I don't know. I don't have memory I played that much play.

Q. It was getting close there at the end but a nice birdie on the last hole to got yourself 1-under on the day. How are you feeling after the third round?

SEI YOUNG KIM: I mean, the front nine I was like, oh, a little frustrate with couple bogeys; just I lost momentum.

So I try too keep the -- get back the focus, and then back nine, yeah, it's -- I got it. (Laughter.)

Q. Were you worried you weren't going to get done?

SEI YOUNG KIM: Sorry?

Q. Were you worried with the darkness?

SEI YOUNG KIM: Not really. But I don't think about. Every hole I just focus. When I standing on last hole already dark. I have a chance to reachable the second shot, but temperature a little drop, so it's ten yards short. Yeah, not enough. So I just layup and then make the birdie, but good result.

Q. And then you get some good rest tonight. You'll be in one of the last groups tomorrow.

SEI YOUNG KIM: Yeah.

Q. How are you feeling going into the last round just a couple strokes behind Miranda?

SEI YOUNG KIM: I just play like last back nine, because front -- just don't lose my focus. Just keep the focus. That's the big thing.

Yeah, just do my best tomorrow.
