

Maybank Championship

Saturday, November 1, 2025

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Kuala Lumpur Golf and Country Club

Hannah Green

TV

Q. Hannah, I know it was a little bit of a disappointing finish, really that was a lesson in resilience to anyone out there today. You didn't have it your own way at the start of the day, and you must be proud of how deeply you dug out there.

HANNAH GREEN: Yeah, for sure. I was 1-under through 2 and then 1-over through 3, so not the start that I wanted, but I think I had maybe seven or eight one-putts in a row, a lot of big momentum putts.

I said to the girls after the girls it said on the stats that I had more putts than the others and I couldn't believe it because of the amount of putts that I holed today.

Yeah, I'm really proud of myself to continue the momentum and make lots of birdies and try and push the leader as much as possible.

Q. You putted well. I also counted six approach shots within six, seven feet from the hole and there were a lot of uneven lies that you had out there, too, so obviously swinging it well.

HANNAH GREEN: Yeah, definitely. I had three weeks off maybe three weeks ago and I really tried to knuckle down on what was going wrong with my swing. If anything, I felt like I was going back to what I normally do instead of trying to search for new things.

My form has been much better the last few weeks so it's nice to have the results actually coming back too. It's nice to be able to hit good shots and then also putt well. I feel like that's kind of the thing that's been different this year, is maybe if I putt well I don't hit the ball well or vice versa.

It's been nice to put three solid rounds in, and hopefully tomorrow I can give it a go.

Q. We've spoken to Jeeno this week about how much she enjoys playing in Malaysia. I spoke to your husband Jarryd out here today; you had your physio Aaron out here. There is a lot of fans from Perth that have made the trip up here. You must be looking forward to -- you must enjoy playing here and be looking forward to tomorrow?

HANNAH GREEN: Yeah, I think it reflects in the results. I usually play well in the cities that we visit that I really like. I'll kind of use that for tomorrow, the experience of playing out here.

It got pretty hot towards the last few holes, so hopefully I don't have any brain farts like did I on the last. I have a lot of fans when I come here to Malaysia, and it's nice to see so many Aussies and hear the accent, even though I am not far from home. Being finished with the season, it's nice to have their support, so hopefully they'll be out there tomorrow cheering for me.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports