Quick Quotes

Q. What's the difference in the Olympics compared to other tournaments?

RYAN FOX: I think in terms of us, being able to represent our country, we don't do that very often in golf and that's a big part of it. If you look at the overall atmosphere this week, I think all of us were kind of taken aback, especially on Thursday going, this is incredible. The atmosphere felt as big as a major, if not bigger, especially those first couple of holes.

It's just a little bit different in that regard. It shows how big an event the Olympics is overall. I think probably didn't have a traditional golf crowd, more of a sporting crowd. People happy to be out there with their national flags everywhere and it was just really, really cool to be a part of that. I would have liked to have played a little bit better but it's all good.

I'll be 41 next time. So if I make it again, I'll be pretty happy.
