Flash Quotes

Q. Take us through the round and the momentum today.

BRYSON DeCHAMBEAU: Started pretty good, made some putts. Felt like I putted really well today. Ball-striking still isn't where I need it to be. If I could just get some feelings of when I shot 58 back, that comfort level, I'll be dangerous out here. Until then, I'm just going to keep grinding. Going to go work a little bit on the game. Hopefully they've got some lights, and have some fun the next few days.

Q. What kind of things do you want to work on?

BRYSON DeCHAMBEAU: I drove it pretty well. I kept it away from trouble. Then the irons were -- nothing was just perfect on point. I didn't feel like I had full control. That warrants me going and practicing with my irons and driver. There's a couple putts that fell and there was a couple that didn't that could have fell. So it's kind of like -- it was a really solid round. I'm not going to complain about it. If I do two more of those, I'll have a really solid chance.
