Scottie Scheffler

Quick Quotes

Q. How would you encapsulate the week?

SCOTTIE SCHEFFLER: Overall, I would say pretty frustrating, but the way I played the last two days I definitely feel a lot better with kind of where things are at than I did coming off the course on Friday. I guess I should say in the middle of the round Friday. I started hitting some did good shots on the back nine Friday, and then I played decent the last couple days. I just wasn't sharp enough to make the big move that I needed to make.

Q. What was maybe the most frustrating part of the week for you as far as, like, your game goes?

SCOTTIE SCHEFFLER: Just couldn't really get anything going. It felt like when I was getting something going -- like, yesterday was a good example. I made kind of a silly -- not a silly, but I had a hard 2-putt on 11. 3-putt and then I go to the next hole and I hit the shot in the back bunker, and then you just kind of know you have no chance from back there. Just little stuff like that. Then hit it in the hazard on 14 yesterday. Just little things, little mistakes that I don't typically make, I felt like I was making this week. So a few things to clean up in the off week, but overall, I feel pretty comfortable with where my game's at.

Q. What maybe will you work on the most during the off week before you head up to Shinnecock?

SCOTTIE SCHEFFLER: Just continue to see the right shots and see the things I need to see as we get ready for Shinnecock.

Q. When you went to Shinnecock, were there any -- since you hadn't seen it before, anything specific shots, maybe, you want to work on for that course that you didn't know about, maybe?

SCOTTIE SCHEFFLER: I would say definitely off the tee and some of the approach shots too. It's one of those courses where there's a ton of space out there, but the areas you have to hit into are quite small. So looking at like tee balls where some of 'em are somewhat blind and you're kind of hitting over that like higher fescue type grass. Then going into some of the greens, the greens are going to play really small, especially if they get firm and it should be really challenging week.
