Q. Alongside our champion Keegan Bradley. We know you play with emotion. You've heard chants of "USA" all week long and now you have your father Mark by your side. Can you describe how this feels today?

KEEGAN BRADLEY: Oh, man, I was shaking over that last putt. I was ready for those cheers. We did it. It was a battle all day.

Q. I know you missed an important soccer match this weekend, but you made it worth it. You told me earlier this week the last Sunday in Memphis was the most stressed you had ever felt on a golf course. How different did it feel today?

KEEGAN BRADLEY: Oh, man, it just shows why you've got to grind it out every week because you never know how fast it can switch. Now I go to Atlanta with a chance to win the FedExCup. I can't believe it. I'm so excited. My dad, first time he's seen me win, so we're pumped.

Q. And might the Ryder Cup captain be playing in the Presidents Cup next month?

KEEGAN BRADLEY: I don't know. I don't know. Geez, I don't know. But I'm proud of the way we played today, and we did it. Win No. 7.

Q. Dad, how proud are you?

MARK BRADLEY: Oh, my gosh. I'm so proud. Like Keegan said, it's the first time I've ever seen him win live. I saw him win the Grand Slam and some amateur events, the Wyoming State Amateur, but never this. This is very, very special day.

Q. Keegan, for those watching who don't know, can you describe the relationship your father has had with you and the game of golf?

KEEGAN BRADLEY: Well, he taught me how to play. He was a club pro his whole life. I went to work with him every
