BMW
CHAMPIONSHIP

Q. Sungjae, you're projected to be at the TOUR Championship for the seventh season in a row. Talk about what that means for you and your career.

SUNGJAE IM: I've been in the top 30 for the last six years and this is the seventh year and I'm on the bubble, and I really want to get top 30 again to get into next week, to keep my seven years going.

Q. How stressful will the next few hours be?

SUNGJAE IM: I'll be on my phone for the next couple of hours stressing out about the different scenarios coming up.

Q. What would it mean to you to make it again to the TOUR Championship?

SUNGJAE IM: Anytime you make it into the top 30, it means you had a good season, so I'm really proud of every season that I've made the top 30. If I were to make it a seventh to keep my record going, I'd be really happy.

Q. When you started today, did you have a number in mind that you needed? How did you feel when you came out this morning and produced a 3-under 67?

SUNGJAE IM: I played poorly the last two days, so I wanted to get inside the Top 40, the most I can do, so I had a number in my head trying to get to -- not over par, and try and keep my score under par and gain at least a couple of points.
