BMW
CHAMPIONSHIP

MICHAEL KIM: Yeah, I never been this close to a TOUR Championship in my entire career. Felt like a small back injury kind of hurt me in the middle of the year. Overall, it was a great season.

Q. How difficult that was round today with everything on the line?

MICHAEL KIM: Yeah, it was playing tricky out there today. Wind was up and swirling and feel like I hit a lot of good iron shots that were just misjudged the wind and miss timed the wind more than anything.

Yeah, I put up a good fight, but I don't think it's going to be enough.

Q. With that being said, how proud are you of how you played this week? You feel good about the way you played?

MICHAEL KIM: Yeah, swung it really nice. Wish I could have made a couple more putts over the entire week and the last two days. Yeah, it was a good effort.

Q. I can tell it stings a little bit right now.

MICHAEL KIM: Yeah, you know, I looked at the projections right before the 18th hole, and after Viktor hit it really close on 18 I was like, oh, I think I might have to make birdie.

Another really good swing on 18, just whether it was some adrenaline or the wind just a little higher than I thought, hit it a little too far past and was a pretty tough putt to make on 18.

Q. When you get a chance to look back on the season, what are you going to be most proud of that you did?

MICHAEL KIM: Did he just three-putt?

Q. No. I think he is at 7.

MICHAEL KIM: Yeah, he's at 7.

Q. When you get a chance to look back on the season, what are you going to be most proud of?
