Q. Brian, maybe what was the difference today from maybe of the rest of the week?

BRIAN HARMAN: I knew I had a round like that in me the last few weeks. Just hadn't happened yet. It's been frustrating. The game's been there. Just missing one too many fairways, missing one too many short putts, missing one too many up-and-downs. It's just golf.

I've been trending the right way for a while, but the results really haven't shown it. I wish I had another week.

Q. This week and recent weeks you've been playing, have you had the Ryder Cup in the back of your mind at all when you've been playing?

BRIAN HARMAN: I think anybody that's been considered for it would be lying if they didn't have it in the back of their mind.

Q. What would be the biggest attribute that you can bring to that team if picked?

BRIAN HARMAN: Anything that I say about myself is going to look like lobbying. So you know what, I'm not going to say anything.

Q. After the last time, after the last Ryder Cup, was that something you just want to keep repeating over and over?

BRIAN HARMAN: Yeah, the teams are a lot of fun. They're a lot of fun. It's kind of an oddity; we're out here playing for so much money and all those trophies, and for some of us, those teams, they kind of mean everything.

The Ryder Cup is super important, and it's an incredible event. I had the time of my life last time.

Q. Isn't it a rule that if you shoot 63 the last day of the TOUR Championship, that's like an automatic?

BRIAN HARMAN: I've had ample chances this year. I'm
