Q. I guess you had made a lot of noise at the last Presidents Cup just really feeding off the fan atmosphere. What are you most looking forward to this week once again?

TOM KIM: Going to be a little bit different than the last one obviously playing on U.S. soil. Sure we're going to hear a lot of boos. Excited to be back and excited to be with my teammates.

We have a lot of rookies but we also have a lot of the same guys that were on the last team. You know, just try to keep building. I feel like every year by Sunday the scores might not have showed, but as a team we have been really close.

(Indiscernible) yeah, have a couple good days.

Q. It's kind of strange to think of you as a veteran presence on this team even though you're still just 24. What have you learned the most about being...

TOM KIM: I think you just got to enjoy it as much as you can. Team golf is so special. The more years I play on the PGA Tour the more I realize how special these events are.

You don't really get a week where you get to really (indiscernible) with the guys. Golf is such an individual sport, but it's important we get together, and to be able to root for your teammates and when your teammates make a putt, there is not a better...

Q. Last night you were on the search for deep dish pizza. Wanted to ask for a status update on that. Have you found anything good?

TOM KIM: Not yet. Hopefully I'm kind of -- me personally, I would love to try it at least once. (Indiscernible.)

Q. Just wondering what Ryan Fox, rookie won the Claret Jug. What's it been like playing alongside him and what you've seen from to him?

TOM KIM: Yeah, obviously it's big just because obviously he's a rookie but he's been out here for a long time. I told him when he -- after he was on the team, when we were playing I told him, man, really can't believe this is your first one. He's been around for a long time.

But I think for the Internationals to have a major champion, I think momentum-wise it's a pretty big thing to know we have a major winner.

Gives me personally confidence to go out there and know that these guys have my back. And I think I can kind of speak for the rest of my team, having him as the champion, we all feed off that.

Q. Have you guys been bouncing advice, giving him advice, has he given you guys advice?

TOM KIM: I think the guys who haven't won a major he's the one who has to give advice. Adam is the only guy that we can't give advice to, especially with him now -- and any major winner on our team. They stand high on that table.
