SANDERSON FARMS
CHAMPIONSHIP

Q. Mark, I know a disappointing day. Just couldn't quite get it going. If we can get some comments.

MARK HUBBARD: Yeah, I mean, definitely disappointing. I feel like I handled myself the way I wanted to. I felt like I was putting nails on the greens and around the greens early on, which to me tells me that I was handling my nerves okay. At the end of the day, I just all week didn't hit enough fairways, and it finally caught up to me today. Greens got pretty baked out, and you just couldn't really do anything from the rough.

Q. What will you take from this week as we head on through the season?

MARK HUBBARD: Yeah, I mean, I've been working on some new swing stuff, and obviously it's been really good. But it didn't hold up under pressure when I needed it. I think it's still kind of in that conscious confidence range where I know what I need to do but I still have to think about it in order to do it, and when you're tired or under the gun like I was today, when you're under pressure like that, it kind of needs to be unconscious and it needs to just come naturally, and it's not there yet.

I know I'm working on the right things, but I've just got to get better so that when I am in this situation again, it just kind of comes naturally and I don't have to think as much and I have something to fall back on. I kind of lost it early on today, and I just didn't really have anything to fall back on because it's kind of too new still.
