Quick Quotes

Shriners Hospitals for Children Open

Q. Had such a great week, a great day. How would you assess everything that went on today?

AUSTIN COOK: You know, overall this is the best finish in three years since the win. Game is on the right track. It's kind of an emotional day. It's been such a grind to get back here. Just being back in the moment, I loved it, and I can't wait to do it again.

Q. How do you take this and springboard into better things?

AUSTIN COOK: Yeah, no, I haven't -- gosh, I don't know if I've broken four or five under in two years. I just can't make that next step. I did it multiple times this week and it's been huge mentally for me, and be able to take this into the next coming weeks.
