

Sony Open in Hawaii

Saturday, January 17, 2026

Honolulu, Hawaii, USA

Waialae Country Club

Adam Svensson

Quick Quotes

Q. Adam, 67 today, 8 under for the tournament. Just start with some general comments on your round today.

ADAM SVENSSON: Yeah, I played great. I struck the ball extremely well. I had a couple weird shots, but it's going to happen when it's windy.

Extremely nice eagle on 9. I hit a hybrid in there to ten feet and made it.

Just a solid day.

Q. On that note, did today feel different compared to the last two days with your game?

ADAM SVENSSON: Not really. The first day I struck it well; yesterday I didn't hit it as good but still decent.

Yesterday my putting was terrible. I missed bunch of putts.

But, yeah, just a very solid couple days.

Q. Did you make any adjustments in your putting before today?

ADAM SVENSSON: A little bit, yeah. I was trying some couple new things in the putter with the stroke, but then I just went back to feel and just trying to get it in the hole.

Q. And then you talked about it a little bit in your first answer, but can you talk about the wind today and the conditions?

ADAM SVENSSON: Yeah, it's mentally tough as well because you're standing over a shot and it's blowing 25 off your left and you got hit it solid. If not you're not going to get it to the hole or the wind is going to take the ball.

So it's just a long day. Every shots you got to grind over it.

Q. Are you a leaderboard watcher?

ADAM SVENSSON: No. I just kind of trot along and whatever happens, happens.

Q. And lastly, what's the mindset going into tomorrow?

ADAM SVENSSON: Just to play solid. I feel like in the last year I haven't had the a greatest Sundays, so just try and, you know, be a little calmer, make better decisions, and yeah, just try and play better than I have before.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

