Quick Quotes

Q. Harold, do you feel like you have some good momentum now heading into tomorrow morning after the way you played the last three?

HAROLD VARNER III: I think I've had momentum all day, even when I played this morning. Just playing super solid. Bouncing around there a little bit on the nine we played, so that was a good way to finish for sure.

Q. Is it hard to keep at this point any momentum the way this week has been?

HAROLD VARNER III: I feel like I've always got momentum. Glad is half full always. I don't struggle with that part ever. Some people would call it arrogant. I think anyone that's playing a professional sport, it doesn't take much to get it going.

Q. Harold, how's it looking for you this week so far? What part of the game do you think is really on point?

HAROLD VARNER III: Just mentality. I had two weeks off, which is awesome. I can't remember last time I had two weeks off that wasn't like Christmas. So that was good. Two weeks off, I think I worked pretty hard. Just mentality, just knowing that I'm going to figure out what I can control and that's it. The rest is history.

Obviously, there's been a lot of talk of the waves, and yeah, there's a big difference, but that's not my problem. I didn't make the tee times.

Q. Was that pullover a pro shop purchase?

HAROLD VARNER III: No, I lost my pullover. I still don't know where it is. The Nike guys got me one. It's in my locker. I'll have a Blue one tomorrow for sure.

Q. A PLAYERS Blue one?

HAROLD VARNER III: Yeah, same one, just a different color.

Q. You lost your pullover?

HAROLD VARNER III: Yeah, I don't know how. I didn't lose my kid. That's all I have to worry about.

Q. It was a long day.

HAROLD VARNER III: Yeah, obviously it's super long, but it is what it is. I'd rather be playing than not playing, that's for sure. It's nice to be playing well, obviously.

The draw has obviously been on my side, and I don't control that, but just playing a lot of good golf. Fun group, been around Tom and Sam a few times, so it's been pretty good.

Q. Did it help playing as much as you did this morning to kind of continue in the afternoon?

HAROLD VARNER III: Yeah, I would think so. Obviously momentum is a real thing in sports, but obviously we lost it a little bit and made two bogeys today, so it's fun, man. I really enjoy competing.

Q. What is your biggest focus tomorrow trying to win the biggest tournament on the PGA TOUR?

HAROLD VARNER III: Just trying to keep doing the things I'm doing, one shot at a time and just stay in the moment, have fun.
