Quick Quotes

Q. Can you talk about how different the course is from just two days ago to now?

KEVIN KISNER: Yeah, the ball flies where it's supposed to. No, the course is in fantastic shape for all it's been through in the last five days. I think it's totally fair to play the ball down these last two rounds. Greens are still super receptive. I don't know if they're going to be able to get out and do anything to them between rounds, which I doubt, but there will be some low scores this afternoon I imagine.

Q. That being said, what's your approach to -- are you going to be more attacking knowing the wind is kind of laying down?

KEVIN KISNER: Well, you just keep playing the way you do and hopefully make a lot of putts. I've been rolling it nice in the third round for the first time all week, so hopefully -- they get marked up pretty good ought there, so trying to tap down everything takes forever, but hopefully knock in some putts and get off to a hot start and try to get in the mix going early.

Q. Were you watching the leaderboard throughout the course of the day?

KEVIN KISNER: All day, yeah.

Q. It seemed like no one really got away.

KEVIN KISNER: Yeah, I was expecting some more birdies. Obviously it was cold this morning, ball wasn't going very far, but now it's warming up and I think you're going to see the ball getting out there and guys making a lot of birdies this afternoon.
