Quick Quotes

Q. Obviously not the finish you want, but still a great week. Can you give us your comments on your final round?

XANDER SCHAUFFELE: Yeah, I think some were questioning me playing this week after coming back from the Middle East, but I play well on this property, and someday I'll win here.

Q. How does this mentality, having such a good week, take you into the next few events that you have coming up?

XANDER SCHAUFFELE: Yeah, it's kind of the back end of a stretch for me. I'll have two weeks off after LA. Hopefully I can finish that on a good note, and I'll have three weeks in a row.

Game is looking pretty good. Need to get the putter to work a little bit better for me throughout the week at Riv, and the results should be different.

Q. Does the crowd out there get into your head at all? Are you able to shut that out throughout the final round?

XANDER SCHAUFFELE: No, it's like white noise. I think if you sign up for this tournament you kind of know what you're going to get. As long as they're embracing you and you're embracing them, it's all good.
