Q. The morning match didn't go your way, but what does it feel to come back out here and win the consolation match in the afternoon?

MATT KUCHAR: So what time's my next match? When do I get Billy Horschel. I got six points, how many has he got? Come on, Billy, any time, any place, I'm ready, you know it.

This is, this is as good as I felt about my game I had a blast out here. Austin Country Club was just magnificent, the setup was fun, they did a great job, every year we come here I really enjoy myself, I enjoy the format. Certainly it was anti-climatic playing in the afternoon match, but once you get out, once you get going, the juices get going and you don't want to lose. So it was a good battle with Victor in the end, but it's a tough match to be a part of.

Q. As you said, maybe a little anti-climatic, but a lot of momentum can be taken, not just from this week but from this match. What does this do for you as you move forward?

MATT KUCHAR: I'm so much more excited about my game that be than I've within earlier this year. This year's been a struggle, but thankfully things have turned a corner, put in some good work with Chris O'Connell, really starting to feel good about my game. There's never a bad time to kind of be off, you would like to be on all the time, and I've been fortunate over the past several years to have a lot of on times, but certainly with the upcoming events it's a good time to kind of have the game clicking a little bit better again.

Q. Do you feel like that on time is coming back to your game now?

MATT KUCHAR: Yeah, yeah, certainly I'm as pleased as I've been in a long time. I feel like I kind of can step up and know where the ball's going again. My misses aren't near as bad as they were the last few months and when your
